

Aquarium Leaves and Cones

Almond Leaves

Contents: 4 leaves

- Mimics natural Betta habitat
- Naturally creates a black water environment
- Great for Bettas, baby discus, dwarf cichlids, black water tetras, catfish, and shrimp

Directions: Use whole or in parts. Use 1 leaf per 5 gallons. Adjust the amount for Betta bowls. In larger systems use 1-2 leaves per 25 gallons. Replace when leaves begin to disintegrate, usually with in 2-3 weeks.

ORGANIC Mulberry Leaves

Contents: 15 grams

- Provide carbohydrates and essential nutrients
- Natural source of Vitamins B1, B2, B6, and C
- Great for Bettas, baby discus, dwarf cichlids, black water tetras, catfish, and shrimp
- Sanitized and ready to use

Directions: Use whole or in parts. Rinse with warm water and secure with wood or a rock. Leaves will become submerged over time. Use 1 leaf per 5 gallons. Replace when leaves begin to disintegrate, usually with in 2-3 weeks.

Guava Leaves

Contents: 15 grams

- Rich in polyphenols, carotenoids, flavonoids and tannins
- Helps prevent Vibrio and luminous bacteria
- Great for Bettas, baby discus, dwarf cichlids, tetras, catfish, and shrimp
- Sanitized and ready to use

Directions: Use whole or in parts. Use 1 leaves per 5 gallons. Adjust the amount for Betta bowls. Once they are wet the cones will sink. Steep in boiling water for 20 minutes to aid in wetting. Add new leaves as needed.

Alder Cones

Contents: 50 grams

- Natural antibacterial and antifungal
- Creates natural black water environment
- Provides hiding places for shrimp and fish fry
- Great for Bettas, baby discus, dwarf cichlids, catfish, and shrimp
- Sanitized and ready to use

Directions: Use 5-6 cones per 10 gallons. Adjust the amount for Betta bowls. Once they are wet the cones will sink. Steep in boiling water for 20 minutes to aid in wetting.

Available from Authorized Dealers nationwide

Dealer Inquiries:

www.aqualifesupport.com

www.aqualiferx.com

aquaLife[®]